Air Napier Ltd

There are many reasons why people learn to fly-to experience a new adventure, for a career, or just simply for recreational purposes.

Many people would love to have the opportunity to fly a plane. The reality is that it's not too difficult. When you ease yourself into the pilots seat and take the controls, our friendly and experienced instructors will then guide you through an experience that may be the start of a lifelong passion.

The trial flight will give you the opportunity to experience a hands on feel of flying an aeroplane. Your trial flight is a trial version of a sequence of lessons that has helped many people all over the world to learn to fly

For only $99 you will get 20 minutes of hands-on flight with a fully skilled instructor right beside you talking you through as much as you feel comfortable with,

If you are looking for a new adventure then call us to arrange a trial flight in one of our many training aircraft. A trial flight is a must for those who have never experienced the thrill of flying
